AGREEMENT OF COOPERATION BETWEEN THE GCC COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION CENTRE – BAHRAIN (GCC Centre)
and
THE LONDON COURT OF INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION (LCIA)

Being convinced that a wider use of commercial arbitration through fair and expeditious procedures lends confidence and stability to international trade, the GCC Centre and the LCIA agree as follows.

1. When so requested, to provide administrative and other services necessary for conducting arbitration proceedings.

2. When so requested, to provide administrative services for the recording of evidence, storage of documents, etc.

3. When so requested, to recommend other persons in specific fields to act in the capacity of technical expert, conciliator or arbitrator.

4. To exchange information concerning training and programme development activities.

5. When so requested, to recommend persons to each other for active participation in seminars, conferences and training activities.

6. When so requested, to co-operate in organising professional and educational activities, such as seminars, lectures and conferences and to assist each other in making such events successful.

7. To publicise each other’s functions and activities to the other’s members.

8. When so requested, to exchange publications, information material and reference documents concerning international and domestic commercial arbitration.

9. To publicise the existence and the extent of this Agreement.

All of the assistance and services referred to above will be provided to the extent that they are reasonably required and can be reasonably provided, and, where appropriate, subject to agreed financial arrangements.

This Agreement will take effect upon signature and has an initial duration of one year, after which time it will remain in effect until either party gives notice of its intention to amend or to cancel the Agreement.

Yousif Zaimal 14/Nov/2002  Jan Paulsson 10/05/02
Secretary General  Acting President
GCC Centre  LCIA